PROJECT DETAILS

Title: Analysis of Women's Safety in Indian Cities Using Machine Learning on Tweets

Technologies : Python, Django, Sentimental Analysis, Machine Learning

Description:

In our project basically focuses on the role of social media in promoting the safety of women in Indian cities with special reference to the role of social media website like Twitter platform. Tweets on twitter which usually contain images and text and also written messages and quotes which focus on the safety of women in Indian cities can be used to read a message amongst the Indian Youth Culture. In this project, by using Sentimental analysis, Textblob and NLTK we are analyzing the cities which is safe and unsafe for women by analysis of tweets on twitter.
